Bids For Depository of Funds.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the county court of Washington county until noon of the first day of May term 1915, of said court from banking corporations, associations and individual bankers in said county for the deposit of the county funds.District school funds and capital school funds of said county for two years next ensuing. In compliance with Sec. 3803 R. S. of Mo. 1909.The county monies have been divided into three funds. Fund number 1, fund number 2 and fund number 3 and proposal from the same bidder may be made for the custody of the three funds or he may bid for either fund.
Since proposal or bid must state the largest rate of interest that said banking corporation, associations or individual banker will pay on daily balance to the credit of said county with said depository on said funds as provided by law for the privilege of being made the depository of such funds.Since proposal must further specify the rate of exchange if any said banking corporation, association or individual banker will charge and said proposal must be accompanied by a duly certified check on some solvent bank for not less than one half of one per cent of the county revenue of said county payable to the treasurer of said county revenue of said county as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder and if his bid should be accepted he will enter into a bond as law provides.No bids will be considered unless said certified check accompanies the same. The court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.GEO. NOONAN, Clerk of Co. Court, Bible for Burnside Moslems.

A colporteur of the British and Foreign Bible society in Burma reports:
"I sold one Holy Bible to an orthodox Mohammedan. He has been one of my bitterest opponents, and has often laughed and scoffed at me as I passed his shop. I asked him why he wanted to buy a Bible, and he confessed that he had secretly read an Urdu Gospel bought from me by one of his servants.
In this book he had found many good things which he had never heard of, and he now wanted to read the whole Bible."

Cause for Suspicion.

A mother who frequently went out to spend the day with her friends had been accompanied always by her seven-year-old son. One evening, on returning home very much bored with the day's experiences, he said to her: "Mother, if you don't stop taking me around with you so much, people will think you have married a ghost."

Maxwell of this place.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Subjects for Sunday, May 2—morning, "My Shepherd;" evening, "Three Cheers."The Norwine Dry Goods Co., one of the oldest and largest business concerns at Bonne Terre, announces that it will retire in a short time. Mr. A.
C. Norwine, head of the firm, says he is tired of the business and will quit.
The founders of the firm went to Bonne Terre from Fourche a Renault in this county, some forty years ago.A bunch of live stock, including several horses and mules, was sold at the court house door last Friday under a chattel mortgage. Bidding was not brisk and the results of the sale failed to satisfy the claim. This may be taken as indication of the prosperity of the community at present.Where did they get those red cedar fence posts they used hereabouts forty and fifty years ago? None can be had here now. The lasting quality of red cedar is truly remarkable. A line of such posts was taken up at the old Emelaur place recently that had been doing service for forty-two years and the ground end was found to be so sound that they were reset for a new fence in preference to the ordinary cedar post.James Cook, a colored miner, fell 165 feet to the bottom of a shaft at Valle Mines last Tuesday and was instantly killed. He was working on top of the ground, when a large boulder upon which he was standing rolled into the shaft, carrying him with it.
His body was covered with tons of dirt and rock that caved in from around the mouth of the shaft when the boulder gave way.—De Soto Republican.We will call the following item from the Ironton Register:Mrs. Wm. A. Buddecke of Mineral Point was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. DeWeese. The Buddecke family own the tiff mill at Mineral Point and state that business is gaining. They are now shipping out about 40 carloads of tiff to the different paint plants in the United States each week.
Despite the war the Germans are mining and shipping into this country a small quantity of tiff each week.

Flat River Puts Up Poor Ball.

Potosi walloped Flat River last Sunday to the tune of 16 to 5. This was the opening game of the season and while the score was a bit one sided, quite a crowd had turned out and watched the locals hammer out everything in the extra base hit line from bunts to home runs. Next Sunday Potosi will mix it with the same team at Flat River.Belgrade Business Men Lose Important Suit.A suit of more than usual interest was decided in the circuit court at Clayton last Friday, says the De Soto Republican. It was the case of the Belgrade Live Stock Co. against the Peoples' Bank of this city, and involved about $3,200. It seems that a customer of the bank gave checks to the live stock company, of which J.
E. and J. G. Walton are members.
The bank turned the checks down on the ground that the account against which they were drawn was overdrawn.
The Walton's then brought suit to compel the bank to pay the checks.
The case came up in the circuit court here and then went to Clayton on a change of venue, by order of Judge Deering. The trial was before a jury and resulted in a verdict for the bank.

A Fistic Event.

A fistic contest was promoted and pulled off in Potosi one night last week before an enthusiastic crowd of 46 local fight fans, who dropped 25 cents each into a purse to go to the winner. We won't mention any names, but it has been told us that the audience looked like a composite picture of nearly all the law officers in town, with a lieutenant here and there of an officer in the church. The aspirants for fistic honors were two husky young colored men, Lys Jennings and Wash Declue, and they wore four-ounce gloves. The fight was Lys's rom the start it is said, and he had Wash hearing the twittering birdies in the sixth round, when the latter quit. The fight took place in one of the entertainment halls here and was referred by a well-known lawyer. Lys, it is said, did not revel in the enjoyment of the purse long, for when he got home with the money, $8.50, his wife took it away from him.

Nelson-Patterson.

Quite a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. John Nelson, on Breton Creek, at 2 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, April 25th, when the only daughter of the household, Miss Annie Nelson, was married to Mr. Roy Patterson, the ceremony being performed by Rev. James A. Henson, a great-uncle of the groom.The bride wore a lovely white costume, with elaborate garniture of lace, made in basque effect, completed by a crushed satin girdle of pale blue, an ensemble most becoming.The groom, a very estimable young man, who has many friends, was attired in a becoming suit of brown.The rooms were lavishly decorated with flowers, white and lavender, sprays of Bridal Wreath predominating.Immediately following the ceremony, after many congratulations and good wishes had been offered, the guests passed into the dining-room, where a most delightful repast was served, consisting of ices, cakes, fruits and lemonade, to which the celebrations added a pleasing touch.The guests, consisting of just the immediate families and a few friends, were—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patterson and family, Miss Jane Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Sparks, Mr. and Mrs.
Jerry Esmeier, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Mr. James Nelson, Rev. Jas.
A. Henson, Miss Rosie Balmer, Mrs.
R. M. Bugg, Mrs. Minnie L. Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Ever-sole.

Death of Col. Van Frank.

The death of Col. P. R. Van Frank, of which we made a brief mention last week, occurred at his late home in Kansas City on April 19th. His remains were taken to Hopewell where they were buried last Wednesday.
Rev. C. W. Anderson of Potosi conducting the funeral services. He is survived by two daughters and a son.Col. Van Frank was 87 years of age at the time of his death, and was widely known throughout this section of the state. He was a pioneer railroad builder of Southeast Missouri, and was one of a group of young civil engineers engaged in the construction of the Iron Mountain Railroad, some sixty years ago, who had their headquarters at Hopewell. Two other members of this group were the late Capt. Frederick Will of Potosi, and Chas. F. Manter, who died in Chicago only a few weeks ago. At Hopewell at that time lived John Evans, who had three attractive young daughters, of whom each of these three young engineers caught one and were married in quick succession, Col. Van Frank to Fanny Evans in 1858. Of these six persons whose young lives were thus woven together in the mesh of romance only Mrs. Manter now survives.Col. Van Frank was a native of New York state, where he was born in 1828. He came to Missouri in 1855.
When the civil war came on been listed in the Union cause, and served with distinction, coming out of the war with the title of colonel. He was successful in business and acquired a considerable estate. Being a man of genial character and pleasant manner he made friends easily and always held them.Out of the Order Two Years, Widow Gets Insurance.A great many people will remember Frank Thomas, who formerly lived here and worked at the North American, and who moved to Caledonia two or three years ago. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and carried $1,000 insurance in that order. About two years ago he dropped out and quit paying dues. On the 9th of March, last, he died, and his widow wrote to J. F. Chilton to know if his policy was worth anything. An investigation showed that he had extended protection for a period of about three years, and about the first of April the proofs of his death were sent in to the headquarters. On the 15th of this month Mr. Chilton received a draft for $1,000, and the widow now has the money.—Fredericktown Dem-News.

will have the streets oiled soon.John Beard of Elvins is here visiting his mother, who is quite ill.Attorney W. R. Edgar of Ironton had business in our town last Thursday.Hartford Collins of Arcadia was on our streets last Friday.Rumor has it that the railroad coal shutes will be rebuilt here soon. The old shutes were burned a year or so ago, and because there was so much objection here to the location of the shutes, the railroad company has done nothing so far towards rebuilding them.Geo. J. Goeltz has secured the support of practically all the patrons the postoffice for appointment to the office when the four-years' term of our present efficient postmaster expires.Mr. Thorburn and daughter, Mrs.

business is pretty dull generally.Mr. John Providence who fell on the ice last winter and fractured his hip, is still confined to his bed as the result of the accident.
He is nearly 80 years of age.Mr. Stephen Denton one of the oldest residents of this section, who has been ill for many weeks, shows no signs of improvement.
He has passed his 94th year and no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Politics vs. Religion.

Uncle Ag Young, Democrat, and Pete Gutherl, Republican, are good friends, but frequently jibe each other over politics. Pete was bustling up the streets of Salem a few days ago, when Mr. Young accosted him."Pete," said he, "did you read about that man Frederick in St. Louis pulling off all that thievery with those bogus notes and deeds of trust? He belongs to your party, don't he?""Yep," said Pete. "He belongs to your church, don't he, Ag?"—Salem Republican.Let the people know you are in business by advertising the fact in

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Potosi People.One kidney remedy has known merit.

Potosi people rely upon it.

That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.Potosi testimony proves it reliable.

W. O. Williams, Potosi, says:

"I had a bad back for several years and any exposure was sure to make it worse. I knew the trouble came from my kidneys, for the kidney secretions were scanty and unnatural. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at the City Drug Store, relieved me. I have been feeling good ever since."Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get

Way of the Modern Debtor.

Dodson and his friend Jones stood conversing on the corner. Dodson looked up, clutched his companion by the arm, and whispered: "Hurry Jim!" Around the corner they went and made off up the street. Then Jones called Dodson to account. "Creditors of mine," answered Dodson. "It isn't like you to dodge creditors," said Jones. "Are you up against it?" "Well," was the reply, "I have enough in my pocket to pay him, and if he caught me I might do it. Now let's go and spend some of this money, so I can give him an honest excuse if he should happen to see him again."

Bound to Happen.

lakes to deserving towns?"

"I don
